The Skeptic's Annotated Bible: Corrected and Explained Jason Gastrich

The Skeptic's Annotated Bible: Corrected and Explained is a rebuttal to The Skeptic's Annotated Bible. After seeing some of the things written about the Bible, I felt compelled to analyze every claim and see if they were true or not. During this time, I read and studied several Bible commentaries, numerous Bible translations, several ancient manuscripts and the Greek and Hebrew scriptures. In the end, I learned that there was an answer to every attack on the Bible.

The Skeptic's Annotated Bible: Corrected and Explained doesn't necessarily prove the Bible's inerrancy. However, after careful research, it does provide possible/probable, well-reasoned answers. Many of these answers were found in the Greek and Hebrew texts. Other answers were found by using a non-KJV translation. In the end, an lengthy rebuttal was produced. It can be used to further your knowledge of the Bible, understand the deeper things in the scriptures and even defend the Bible against attacks from skeptics, atheists and other religionists.
