A high school reunion in a South Florida town unburies the past (literally) in this unhinged tale of revenge and redemption.

Lottery-winning surfer Danny Teakwell seems to be living the life in his beachfront condo, but he's been hiding a terrible secret and punishing himself for two decades. Now he's hit rock bottom. So he thinks. The skeleton in his closet shows up at the reunion, along with a cheerful psychopath posing as a classmate. The imposter's loony plan to avenge the past launches Danny on a twisted race through the Sunshine State to save his skin and, more important, the woman he's loved since the fifth grade. They made a promise in high school and he broke it. He can't let it happen again.

The odds aren't good. He has three days and his only allies are a pill-popping lawyer, crusty barkeep and seven-year-old embalming expert.
