Religion Under Scrutiny: Fallacies, Superstition & Mythology Marc W. Garvin

This book describes in detail the uselessness of tainted religions which are mostly based on archaic superstitions and mythology. The three Abrahamic religions are discussed in length, while particular attention is dedicated to the Islamic Faith for its particular intolerance and hostility. Since some Muslim factions have declared themselves at war with the West, this book is a must for those readers who would like to reach a level of preparedness under the basic principle of "know your enemy first and foremost" as a primordial line of defense against a potential army of fanatic barbarians. -----

----- WARNING: The contents of this book may also be offensive to your religious sensitivity. If you decide to read it anyways, please put aside your mystical perception of the "truth" and be prepared for the challenge. You have been forwarned!
