Clara didn't mean to steal the pearls--it was a very naughty impulse that she didn't ignore, even though she should have. Because her crime didn't go unnoticed. To placate the owner, the man of the house has to spend a lot of money on the pearls...and he's going to make Clara pay him back with interest.

He wants to teach her a lesson and show her how to obey. More than that, though, the man of the house wants to stuff the college girl's tight, sexy body until they're both panting and satisfied.

And he finally has the excuse he's been waiting for...

Soon enough the sweet, inexperienced Clara is on her knees in front of him, ready to show him that she knows better than to steal again. But he has a better use for the pearls and is ready to take her hard and without protection.
