Burning for the Fireman J L Taft

Ryker is no stranger to taking on challenges—as a firefighter, his strength and determination are tested on a weekly basis. When his team is called to extinguish a blaze at an apartment complex, the last thing he expects is to see a woman with flame-colored hair come dashing from the burning building, clutching someone else’s child. But when she informs him she doesn’t like sex, he’s more than just shocked. He’s intrigued and takes her statement as a challenge he can’t refuse, even if it means he has to let Allie into more than just his bed.

Reader Advisory: This story has graphic sexual language and scenes—no closed bedroom doors (or other rooms) here!
