Zen, The Religion of the Samurai (chap 8.only) is a straightforward, non dogmatic, and practical study of Zen Buddhism that is accessible and USEFUL. It is complimentary to The Way of Peace and has helped many find peace, lose stress, and change their lives.

The Path of Prosperity is the in depth exploration and manifestation of the power of thought and the nature of the world. It picks up where As a Man Thinketh (not included) leaves off. Although applicable to prosperity in general, it is easily used as a theoretical base and plan for success in virtually any endeavor from financial to social. It can help you realize the nature of the world and yourself.

The Kingship of Self-Control - is filled with practical, short and sweet, USABLE kernels of wisdom. It provides simple, practical, everyday useful knowledge. The chapter "The Greatness of Simplicity" can help reduce stress exponentially, give a fresh perspective, and vastly improve life by simplifying.
