Suora scolastica (Italian Edition) Stendhal

Cette reine, Elisabeth Farnèse, passa quinze ans de sa vie sans perdre de vue plus de dix minutes par jour son fou de mari. Cette cour, si misérable au milieu de ses fausses grandeurs, a trouvé un peintre homme de génie, digne de toutes les profondeurs de ses critiques et porté par le génie sombre du caractère espagnol, le duc de Saint-Simon, le seul historien qu'ait produit jusqu'ici le génie français. Il donne le détail curieux de tous les soins que se donna la reine Elisabeth Farnèse afin de pouvoir un jour lancer une armée espagnole et conquérir pour un de ses deux fils puînés qu'elle avait donnés à Philippe V, quelque'une des principautés de ce pays-là. Elle pouvait par ce moyen éviter la triste vie qui attend une reine douairière d'Espagne et trouver un refuge à la mort de Philippe V.
