Joseph's Coat of Many Colors: A Story of Jealousy and Forgiveness Marilee Joy Mayfield

The story of Joseph and His Coat of Many Colors has been told since Biblical times. This version by Marilee Joy Mayfield is told in short, lyrical, rhyming stanzas that can be shared with children ages 3-8. Although the story of Joseph and his brothers begins with jealousy, it ends in forgiveness, love, and redemption. It's a powerful story of the beginning of the tribes of Israel that children will remember and apply to their own relationships with their brothers and sisters. Joseph's talent and glory continues to shine as his story has been carried from generation to generation from spoken stories to printed books to the digital Kindle version. The beautiful, childlike illustrations by Alma Perissinotti take you back to Joseph's home and his travels.
