Armageddon's Song: 'Stand - To' (The Map Illustrated Edition) (Volume 1) Andy Farman

Did the Cold War really end? No matter, it's about to get hot anyway. The new Map Illustrated edition of the first volume in the best selling five part series 'Armageddon's Song'. Espionage, subterfuge, corruption in high places and a nuclear plot are uncovered by a beautiful spy who is more used to losing her clothes to learn secrets than she is of keeping them. Will duty bind her to silence or will conscience win over? 'Stand-To' is the first book in the 'Armageddon's Song' series and it puts you in the seat of a Sea Harrier dog fighting over the Pacific, in the control room of a submarine during a torpedo attack in the Atlantic, looking down the sights of a sniper rifle on the north German Plain, and at the side of a Russian paratroop General who leads from the front. Going beyond Clancy's 'Red Storm Rising' and Coyle's 'Team Yankee' to encompass not just a story from a US point of view but also through the eyes and deeds of the other combatants. There are many and varied characters this book will follow, the soldiers and the spooks, the brave and the low on both sides of the conflict, and of course those just trying to survive World War 3.
