The people of Ghor have never been known to be afraid, but fear of the unknown can temper even the bravest of hearts. For years the children of Ghor have been unable to Fulfill their Birthrights, leaving them stranded in the heart of the Immortal Forest. In all that time, their families back in the village of Tuckkar have had nothing but time to fear the worst. Their king, burdened by the impossible promises he's made and haunted by the ghosts of his past, desperately searches for a way to end the Birthright once and for all before his own child is born into the outdated tradition. Meanwhile, on the other side the children witness the seizure of the Altar of Pilgrimage by Tuckkarian soldiers. Fearing what the king's intentions could be, Princess and Paladin advise restraint until they learn more. Armed with a worn ancient journal, outdated information, and a cryptic prophesy, they set out to find a peaceful resolution. Little do they know, the answer is much closer then they think.
