This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text. Purchasers can download a free scanned copy of the original book (without typos) from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1902 Excerpt: ...on the Fourth of July, and Mr. Hand before the Mechanics' Association, and we do not go hither, because we know that these gentlemen will not communicate their own character and being to the audience. If we had reason to expect such a communication, we should go through all inconveniences and opposition. The sick would be carried on litters. But a public oration is an escapade, a non-committal, an apology, a gag, and not a communication, not a speech, not a man.--SPIRITUAL LAWS. JUNE 26. Do not cumber yourself with fruitless pains to mend and remedy remote effects; let the soul be erect, and all things will go well.--TUB THANSCENDENTALIST. JUNE 27. All good is eternally reproductive. The beauty of nature reforms itself in the mind, and not for barren contemplation, but for new creation. All men are in some degree impressed by the face of the world; some men even to delight. This love of beauty is taste. Others have the same love in such excess that, not content with admiring, they seek to embody it in new forms. The creation of beauty is Art.--BEAUTY. JUNE 28. A man should learn to detect and watch that gleam of light which flashes across his mind from within, more than the lustre of the firmament of bards and sages. Yet he dismisses without notice his thought, because it is his. In every work of genius we recognize our own rejected thoughts. They come back to us with a certain alienated majesty.--SELF-RELIANCE JUNE 29. So I will owe to my friends this evanescent intercourse. I will receive from them not what they have, but what they are. They shall give me that which properly they cannot give, but which radiates from them. But they shall not hold me by any relations less subtle and pure.--FRIENDSHIP. JUNE 30. The gift, to be true, must be the flowing of th...
