The lack of something is the mother of creation. If pushed to the limit and taken out of our comfort zone, we can do some remarkable things. Human potential is limitless. Stripped of the bare necessities, we learn to use what we have to survive.

It's that feeling of your back against the wall when facing tremendous adversity. You're fueled by the will to survive no matter the extreme conditions. That's if you have a fighting spirit. It's this adversity that introduces you to your true character. This is where the fighting spirit is born.

Refusing to accept things the way they are. This is your drive and when you're driven, you're truly tapping into your potential.

This book is about wanting something so bad, it compels you to tap into your creativity. It's about using the assets you have to make the best out of any situation. It's a true story where I faced tremendous adversity and overcame by the drive to succeed. I refused to accept things the way they were and triumphed. This will inspire you.
