The Adventures of Weebie Hiking in the Great Smoky Mountains National Park Stanley Wilson

Little Weebie is an American Character doll originally named Toodles. She was "born" sometime in the 1950s and was a very popular doll. These dolls had jointed elbows and knees which made it possible for them to pose in many different positions. We named our doll Weebie after a small ultra-light monoplane. In this short story, little Weebie follows her dream of becoming a Park Ranger by spending the summer in Great Smoky Mountains National Park as a Volunteer Seasonal Ranger.
