A Puritan Catechism

- Compiled by Charles Haddon Spurgeon in 1855, this portion contains 82 basic questions and answers of simple Biblical truth, made up from the Westminster Shorter Catechism and the Baptist Catechism, so that disciplined (not vain) repetitions and meditation upon those Biblical truths will aid in causing the truth to sink into the soul. This version has been updated in modern English and uses the English Standard Version of the Bible where applicable.

Daily Bread

- Systematically compiled by Robert Murray M'Cheyne in 1842 is a systematic Bible plan with scripture portions from the Bible to read daily in the morning and evening, for individuals and families, so that the Bible may be read completely through in the course of one year (the New Testament and Psalms twice, and the Old Testament once). Added to M'Cheyne's readings is an adjustment for leap years.

1689 London Baptist Confession of Faith

- The Second London Baptist Confession contains 32 small chapters detailing, in systematic form, the theology of Bible truth. This version has been updated in modern English by Jon J. Cardwell and utilizes the English Standard Version of the Bible wherever applicable.

Hymns and Psalms

- This small volume contains seven select, well-known hymns followed by seven select psalms from the 1650 Scottish Psalter.

Devotional Suggestions

- Suggestions for implementing some of the tools for individual and/or family devotions.

This is a great tool for any Christian desiring to grow in grace and be strengthened in faith; whether using the book as a family, or in private, individual meditations to exalt Christ unto the glory of God.

The disciplines you develop in daily devotions and meditations in God's Word will provide a wealthy inheritance for your children, and theirs, for many years to come.
