Purpose Powered People showcases a handful of exceptional people who live life on their terms and who make a difference for others.

Whether it is the Superintendent who touches the lives of thousands of kids every day, or the industrial construction worker who makes sure everyone gets home safe, or the superstar model who has zest for life, or the successful entrepreneur who balances life and business with purpose, each has a unique reason for being here and doing what they do. These chosen individuals do their jobs with great intention and great purpose.

Purpose Powered People is the brainchild of Jessica Peterson who has asked the question, “What is your purpose?” to thousands of people since she was a little girl. She has always been fascinated with the answers and what drives people to do what they do. She herself is someone who loves connecting people. And in this book are gathered eighteen inspirational leaders each telling their own story and sharing the choices they made that brought them to this point in life.

Purpose is an age-old question that we are forever seeking. It is a part of our DNA, our chemical makeup as a human being to leave a legacy. Each and every one of us is here to make a difference.
