The Taboo Tabernacle Rob Black

From the 2013 SNM Horror Mag Author of the Year, comes the most depraved and twisted horror novel ever published from SNM Horror Mag's most published author. Entombed in this crypt are the 14 stories brought into daylight for the first time ever. Rob Black's grimy appendages and macabre imagination have woven together what can only be called unapologetic horror, with dark and twisted characters, acting out the most taboo of indulgences that will shock and appall in the most horrific of ways. Not only is he SNM Horror Mag's most published author in their seven year history, it features his 6 Stories of the Month. It's the epitome of what true horror represents. And he pulled it off without using any vampires, werewolves or zombies in this book. Warning: This press is not responsible for the nightmares the reader will endure and, as such, cannot list what the stories contain publicly on the back jacket of this book. Read at your own risk and take comfort that this novel is listed under horror fiction. *You can scream all you want, but your God will not be listening while you read this...
