Amy has signed up for a strange kind of therapy. It is her last hope to recover from an all-consuming addiction that is on the verge of claiming her young life. When her mother passed away a little more than one year ago, Amy had been a vibrant teenager looking forward to her senior year of high school. Now her father's friend is the only one who stands between the drugs and her salvation. He offers an entirely different kind of fix. A fix that might be legal but is sure to transform the young girl into a wild vixen.

This is book 3 in the Gutter Girl series.
