BATTLE OF MIAMI Had the government been more attentive, perhaps Obama wouldn't have won the White House! Don't miss the latest novel by Florida author Sam Phillips - based on a true story - BATTLE OF MIAMI. Driven by the seemingly twin desires of ambition and sexual desire, Dan Fuller secretly revels in the latter until he's charged with gross negligence in his duties and unceremoniously fired from his position as president and CEO of a Miami bank. Though certain it was a conspiracy behind the unspecified charges levied against him, he nonetheless must endure the hardships of financial ruin while a lawsuit creeps through the legal system. Over two years later, his former professional and profligate lives collide in a Miami courtroom, where he battles the conspirators as well as the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation over his role in the cause of the now failed institution! While the attorneys for the defendants crowd around their table, Dan must fight with the aid of an aging friend and former real estate lawyer. The odds of prevailing are formidable and only grow more so with the devastating revelation of his now former sex life. Had the government paid proper attention to the outcome of the trial, it could have saved the nation, maybe even the world!
