Best of Friends Jilliene McKinstry

Devon Kelly thinks it is amusing when her best friend, Patrick, is chosen as the McKenzie Man--the town's most eligible bachelor--by a local magazine. It doesn't bother her that the McKenzie Man Curse is famous for landing every McKenzie Man in holy matrimony almost immediately. At least she doesn't think it bothers her until his beautiful assistant seems interested in more than just working together.

Patrick Lawrence is a man living on borrowed time. He's been inflicted with the McKenzie Man Curse and now he needs the love and support of all his friends, especially from his best friend Devon. What he also needs is a little less love and support from the single women in town.

Devon and Patrick must decide whether or not their friendship can outlast the curse, or if this curse is their biggest blessing. Their friends and family can only watch as these two best friends battle themselves, and the inevitable.
