Bring the Dawn: short stories and poems of hope and joy Dixie Ann Black

I And The Fire Are One I have stopped loaning out my soul to the taskmasters of the world. No longer will I do their ego's bidding. Fear will no longer fracture my intentions Nor confusion my destination. No longer will I be a victim of the forgetting that steals my soul's light. I and the Fire are One As I walk the Path I set ablaze. --- Bring the Dawn is about finding and keeping hope and joy in the midst of our busy and often stressful lives. The stories range from short reveries based on actual travels to in depth fictional short stories. The poems lay bare our yearnings for completion and our moments of mystery. This second book by Dixie Ann Black, author of Just Chasing the Sun, is a refreshing ride in our journey as we all just chase the sun.
