Emma is beyond sick of her dead end non-relationship “relationship” with a man who refuses to give her what she really wants. When she has the courage to end it, she worries she'll never get back out on the dating scene and almost resigns herself to what seems to be fact – she may end up being single forever. Just when she is about write romance out of her life, her best friend Leanne persuades her to go to a very different kind of beach party... one where the hosts are hot, dangerous and very, very wild... They're going to party with the outlaws and one of them has had his sights on Emma for some time... Will she resist? Or will she have the night of her life? I hope you decide to give this latest of my biker adventures a whirl...
