Keisha Mosby has it all: the amazing family, the dream job in her family business, and a man who adores her. She has lived a charmed life and could not be happier. That is until an old friend comes into play and rocks everything she knows. Her old college roommate Takia moves to her hometown and stays with her while trying to get her life together. Takia admires everything about Keisha and all that she has. Keisha is more than willing to share with her, but perhaps too willing. Things begin to turn and Keisha finds herself being pushed out of her own life. Her job, family, and man become a question mark after some lies and deceit threaten to cost her everything she holds dear; perhaps even her life. Keisha learns the hard way the dangers that can come with a friend that wants to be just like you.
