Please note—This is book was previously published as "Tempting Gifts—The 'Steamy' Version. It is the SAME book with a HOT new cover and title.

Working in the children's club at the Lodge, reputation is important which is why Lisa Gibbs is tired of the party boys only looking for a one-night stand. She's serious about her life and career, and she won't let anything—or anyone—get in the way of that.

Jason Porter will do anything to make his twin sister and his favorite nephew happy. Including attending a dreaded family reunion at the Lodge. But hanging out in the mountains has its perks—like the beautiful woman in charge of the kids club.

And flirting's safe, because the last thing he wants is a relationship.

And the last thing Lisa wants is any sort of attention from Jason—no matter how funny and handsome he is—especially if it could cost her the job she loves.

But when their concern for the little boy they both care about, forces the two of them together, will they let their walls down long enough to see that what they've both been avoiding, may be the one thing that saves them?

~A hot, contemporary romance~

A 'sweet romance' version of this book is available as: Tempting Gifts", So if you prefer a sweet romantic read, the original version is probably for you.**
