Heart of Gold (a novella) Lacy Williams

Wyoming, 1902 - Ranch foreman Charlie Welch suspects his boss's daughter has returned home with purely selfish motives - she wants money.

After being estranged from her father for years, Opal Bright hopes her homecoming will result in both reconciliation and a solution to help the orphanage she sponsors back home in Omaha.

When Charlie and Opal find themselves mixed up with a ragtag group of bandits and trapped in an abandoned gold mine, they must risk everything to survive... including their hearts.
