The Leadership Revolution: Stairsteps Back to Simplicity Scott Catt, Scott Coleman, Clark Bateman

With pointed insights and compelling data from some of the world's most respected leaders, The Leadership Revolution is a principle centered path back to the simple side of leadership. The premise is thought leaders may be put into tough situations, there are simple upward steps that take you back time and time again to the fundamentals of leadership. The kind of leadership that changes lives and organizations. There is no quick fix to leadership nor is there an overnight course to perfection, but there is a steady, and at times almost seemingly unobserved, staircase of twisting and turning revolutions that lead to higher plains of thoughts and attributes associated with success. The Leadership Revolution is inspirational in it's message, applicable in it's approach, and practical in it's relevance. This book will surely take it's place in time as one of the powerful learning tools of personal leadership and organizational development.
