When you ask God to allow you to see through His eyes, you will begin to see the people around you as He sees them. You will experience Him in your daily encounters, in conversations, and in the hustle and bustle of your day like never before. These are stories of true events that allowed the author to catch a glimpse through the Father's eyes, and see people for a moment the way that He sees them. As you enjoy each of these stories, it is the author's prayer that you dare ask God to allow you to see what He sees for a moment, and that you are unable to respond the same ever again. Join her on this journey and challenge yourself to see things through your Father's eyes.
