Raven Edwards, a strong and talented BBW African American woman, is all business when it comes to managing Night Songs—a classic rock band with a large cult following. She leads a comfortable life and has a reliable, responsible and boring boyfriend. Her world turns upside down when Lorimar Heath, the band's hot lead singer, starts pursuing her instead of one of the countless tall, thin and beautiful women who vie for his attention. Raven is confused and enticed. Could he really be interested in her? And what is the secret the band members guard so closely?

The publisher has included several bonus short reads to thank you for downloading this book!

WARNING: This book contains mature themes and language and is intended for readers 18 years of age and older.
