Eye Unlocked: Poems, Short Stories and Illustrations Linda M. Washington

Linda Washington is a story stalker.

Employed as a court security officer, she travels on her own time throughout Washington, DC to observe, report, and reflect on what she sees and thinks about.

Her ponderings are collected here in her first publication consisting of prose, poetry, and illustrations.

Readers will welcome her sincere personal reminiscences. By appreciating her observations about residents, co-workers, sports teams and even philosophies found in the nation's Capitol, readers come to value the spiritual and material moments in their own lives.

She invites you to take the jaunt with her and join in her story stalking.
