Cándido o el optimismo+La princesa de Babilonia (Clasicos Universales) Voltaire

Francois-Marie Arouet (1694-1778), más conocido como Voltaire, filósofo y dramaturgo francés, fue un apasionado fustigador de los vicios y defectos de la raza humana, a quien satirizó con acritud desde sus obras. Candio o el optimismo es considerada su obra maestra, donde expone, con estilo cáustico y mordaz, la amarga lección que le había dado la vida: "Trabajar sin razonar es la única manera de hacer la vida insoportable". La princesa de Babilonia, a su vez, es un ingenioso divertimento satírico en el que se burla del amor cortesano.
