A woman is attacked in her home, kept hostage over a long weekend as snowbound London grinds to a halt. Her assailant, a disturbed young man, refuses to divulge his agenda, forces her to take part in a grotesque roleplay of Desert Island Discs, using this simulation exercise to reveal snapshots of his past. The woman, a Tv presenter and minor celebrity, struggles to identify the purpose of the assault and in so doing is forced to examine the alcohol-blighted past that she has always sought to repress. A tense psychological drama, Human Bingo is the author's fourth novel.
