Sparking the imagination of young readers. This zealous tale about a young French chef who craves adventure, teaches children common words in French, Italian, and Spanish. As a passionate Chef Purée never falls short of pleasing his parents. They are content with their family's quaint little café, and its ocean front character. However, it is just not enough for Chef Purée. Filled with hopes of exploration and the desire to travel the world trying different foods. He is encouraged to follow his heart while he still has his youth. Eager to embrace new people, places, and pleasures. Chef Purée leaves the family restaurant to embark upon the journey of his dreams. But where will his dreams take him, what will he see, who will he meet, and how does the food in different countries taste? Join Chef Purée, discover the Chef in you, and try the delicious recipes inside...
