Until Now (the Not Yet series) (Volume 2) Laura Ward

Focus. Dean Goldsmith is Indiana University's star quarterback, and his dreams are about to come true. His undefeated season means he has a legitimate shot at the NFL. If he stays focused. Football comes first. College senior, Grace Yeates, is determined to defy the odds. She is months away from graduating with a business degree, something no one thought she would be able to pull off. All she has to do is focus on her number one priority. Family comes first. Distraction. Dean has no time for distractions, but when a gorgeous, snarky, redheaded waitress refuses to tell him her name, he can't seem to focus on anything else. Grace knows she can't let herself get caught up in a guy, particularly a man-whore like Dean, no matter how charming or sexy. She has two hearts to look out for now and no room for a Dean-sized distraction. Complications. Everyone in Dean's life agrees that Grace is the kind of complication his career doesn't need. Grace knows that Dean is the kind of risk her heart shouldn't want. But what if the last person you think you need, the one you shouldn't want, becomes the one you can't live without? Can their biggest distraction actually be the focus they were missing all along?
