Female Force: Angelina Jolie Brent Sprecher

Award-winning actress, loving mother, tireless defender of refugee rights, Angelina Jolie is all of these things and so much more. While many people know her from her roles in such blockbuster films as Tomb Raider or from the scandals and controversies that have followed her since she first burst onto the scene, few know that she is the first person in history to be honored with the coveted "Citizen of the World" award for her work as a Goodwill Ambassador with the United Nations. Jolie's life in movies and her work with the UN are traced through the story of three volunteers working in the devastated city of Port-Au-Prince, Haiti.
