Rewire (The Gold Stone Girl Book 3) Nicole Quinn

"Quinn sets the stakes deliriously high in this final volume of her Gold Stone Girl trilogy, set in a feminist-nightmare dystopian future. The planetary monocontinent is shrinking, and reluctant heroine Mina, gifted with the power of dreaming, is marooned in the land of Disbelief and stalked by the predatory Night Mare. There's imagination and quirky humor for days—talking dresses, male housewives imprisoned by slugs—in this visionary finale to an eye-opening series." Chronogram Magazine

"What a journey I have gone on!....swallowing in great greedy gulps like one of your demon types all your long hard work!....wow!....fun fascinating and informative!.....really well done ...like things that have big play in the world ...and yet deeper and better...." Melissa Leo, (Academy Award winner, The Fighter)

"Nicole Quinn's imagery is so startling, brilliant and original, that I caught my breath at each sentence. Sure to become a modern classic in the tradition of The Handmaid's Tale by Margaret Atwood." Laura Shaine (author, Dreams of Rescue, A Place in the country, Sleeping Arrangements)

The planet is shrinking. Soon there will be nothing left of Blinkin but a black hole. All the systems are gone. The breeders have been abandoned. Mina's stuck in Disbelief, navigating the long shortcut back. Rose has been taken. Is she a Night Mare? While Anka's lost in dreams, still determined to make a meal of the dreamer and start the horror anew. Who will triumph in the battle for belief?
