A Guest at Cambridge George Guest

Dr. Guest's autobiography traces his career from its beginnings in Bangor, Wales, through nearly half a century as College Organist and Choirmaster at St. John's College, Cambridge, England. Writing with candour and charm, Dr. Guest not only provides priceless advice for would-be choir directors and an in-depth look at the history of music at St. John's, but also presents the reader with a delightful mix of the stories and memories of a truly outstanding musician.
