Excerpt from: SHE IS CLOSE

She swings around and reaches for her sunglasses. She is close. She lifts up a coaster. My hands and mouth shake like a wall of wall to wall mirrors. I jump on my bike and start up. Her arms are white. She looks like a bottled angel.

Excerpt from: THE FUTURE SONG

Can I realistically warn the rest of the world by interrupting all of the signs?
The computer revolution is over! How insane to have an operating system.
One day our collective brains will be replaced by IBM stem cells. Telepathic signals between chemical solutions will be programmed into every wheelchair.

Excerpt from: SHE SINGS FOR FUN

I could talk to her. I knew her beauty and style. I used to see her every morning waiting for the school bus. She said hi once, while standing in the parking lot. I drove the VW down to the river and shouted at the black swans.
