There are many families who would like to celebrate Passover in a traditional way, but in a shorter period of time. This might be due to the presence of small, impatient children, or guests who have only a limited amount of time in their busy schedules, or people new to the observance of Passover who want just the basics. For whatever reason, there seems to be a place for a Passover dinner service (Seder) that is brief, yet still contains all the essentials. This Haggadah was created to provide a shorter service that still preserves the historical traditions of the Passover celebration. It is especially useful for people with small children who want to get to the Afikomen part as fast as they can.
