Unconventional Means Matt Jensen

If you or a loved one has been downsized, you're probably wondering how in the world you're going to make ends meet.

That was what happened when Matt Jensen's wife received news from "Big Corp." that she would no longer be employed. Fortunately, the couple was already adept at saving money, slashing expenses, and capitalizing on overlooked and unusual opportunities.

In this self-help guide to pursuing new adventures, learning new things, visiting new places, and making new friends-all while saving and making money-Jensen shares how to:

use the "sob story close" to get discounts on products and services;

save hundreds of dollars per month on grocery store bills;

take advantage of credit card reward programs; and get to the person who has the power to say "yes" to special requests.

There are no investments to make, no complicated formulas to follow, no fancy banking and/or financial balancing acts to maintain, and your success will not be based on the efforts of others.

Start saving and making money with the practical advice in Unconventional Means."
