Front & Center: How I Learned To Live There Carlton Wilborn

This Award-Winning book, FRONT & CENTER is an emotional and poignant journey through Wilborn's life and career, which began as a principal dancer for Chicago's prestigious Hubbard Street Dance Company. In the book, Wilborn recounts his behind-the-scenes experiences in Hollywood, as well as his various tours with Madonna. Born into a family filled with secrets, Wilborn would eventually enter manhood haunted by horrible memories of molestation. Through much inner strength, Wilborn finally confronted his assaulter - a serial molester who at one time was incarcerated. The book is an honest and revealing awakening into one man's survival and through it all, how he found success and the peace and healing he yearned for. Dealing with anger, sexual confusion and validation, Wilborn hid in the shadows for many years. Against tremendous odds, Wilborn embraced life and was able to move forward. His remarkable and inspirational story is testament to the power within us all.
