The Age of the Network: Organizing Principles for the 21st Century Jessica Lipnack, Jeffrey Stamps
This work demonstrates how to create organizations defined by speed, agility and a web of interconnected relationships. It introduces five "TeamNet Principles" that allow companies to reinvent themselves without forfeiting existing position or advantage. Based on experiences with some of America's top companies, "The Age of the Network" aims to assist companies in breaking through roadblocks to change, build innovation into new relationships and achieve bottomline results.
