Lorelei wants nothing more than to be like the Silver Moon Fairies—to gather moonbeams at midnight, stardust by starlight, and dance by the light of the moon. But she never joins in, ashamed of the thing that makes her different—her one golden wing. When she attempts to mask the color of her wing and a storm uncovers its golden glow, the other fairies help her discover how truly special she is. With artwork highlighted by silver and gold foil, this book reveals the sensitive side of nature and will inspire all to celebrate their differences and glow golden true.
