There Is More . . . 18 Near-Death Experiences (Sacred Life) Sharon Lund

With heartfelt honesty, Sharon Lund, DD, describes her wrenching childhood abuse, personal struggles, battle with HIV/AIDS, and near-death experiences (NDEs). Then she brings us stories from other men, women and children who have faced death, only to come back, their lives enriched with immense love, freedom, and healing that resulted. Sharon as teacher, student, and messenger helps us make sense of the world and our place in it. Through dying and death, many of life's struggles pale, and we see more of who we are, what is important, and understand a bit more about this life journey so many of us take for granted. This uplifting, inspiring book sheds new light on death, carrying readers to a deeper understanding of this most natural experience. Through death, life takes on new meaning, connecting us to the present moment, free from fear of that final breath on the planet. Released from the three-dimensional world, we journey to the Oneness of all and the love that carries us to our authentic selves. Sharon Lund, DD, has fully danced with life and death much of her life. As an international speaker, she has inspired audiences throughout the United States and into Canada, Europe, Russia and Japan.
