University of Southern Georgia: Dan and Billy Heath Greenfield

Some people know exactly who they are. As a matter of fact, some people can't help being who they are even if it doesn't fit into a conventional world. Other people struggle to figure out what that even means. Dan is the first. Billy is the second. Together, they are exactly what each one needs.

When a horrible roommate forces Dan—a theatre major and the apple of his family's collective eye—to desperate measures, he turns to Billy to save him. What he doesn't know is that Billy needs him just as much. Billy, the staunch, upright, gay Republican who has secrets of his own, is bowled over by the bright, forthright Dan, and finds himself inconveniently in love. Dan adores a man of conviction, and he'll force himself to settle for friendship if he must...but as fate has it, things are about to change...
